

Name: _____

Date: _____

Animal Senses Quiz on SIGHT

Question 1:

What are the five different senses?

Question 2:

How would you define peripheral vision?

- A) The ability to see out of the corner of our eyes
- B) The ability to see objects up close
- C) The ability to judge how far away an object is
- D) The ability to see objects in 3D

Question 3:

What is a pupil?

- A) A part of the eye that helps us hear
- B) A small, black hole in the center of the eye
- C) The colored part of the eye
- D) A protective covering around the eye

Question 4:

What is a Predator?

- A) An animal that eats leaves and plants
- B) An animal that is killed and eaten by other animals
- C) An animal who has all five senses
- D) An animal that kills and eats other animals

Question 5:

A predator has eyes on the front of its head and prey animals often have eyes on the side of its head. You will notice that a predator has forward-facing vision but little peripheral vision, and it is the opposite for prey animals. Why would these animals need to receive information differently?

- A) Predators need to see directly in front of them for hunting, while prey animals need to see all around them for threats
- B) They do not need to see differently
- C) Prey animals need to see directly in front of them for hunting, while predators need to see all around them for threats
- D) Predators need to see around them for hunting, while prey animals need to see only in front of them for threats

6) Which Animal Below is a Predator?

or

7) How do you know which animal is prey? Why?

8) True or False: There are animals that can be both predator and prey.

- A) True
- B) False

Bonus: Write two animals that are prey and two animals that are predators that were not used in this quiz.

Prey

Predator
